STAT

SUBJECT: Security Awareness Working Group (1978)

1. The Security Awareness Working Group (SAWG) was established in the December 1976 SECOM meeting at the recommendation of the NSA member for enhancement of the security awareness of the Community. The SAWG has been chaired by the NSA representative since that time and has included representation from each IC organization.

2. During 1978, the SAWG compiled and published a Bibliography of Security Personnel and Materials available in the Intelligence Community. These materials include film, tapes, slides, pamphlets, etc. which are available at each Agency or Department and can be made available to other IC member organizations for the purpose of promoting security awareness. This publication is designed for periodic updating.

3. The SAWG also prepared an initial draft of a proposed Annex to DCID 1/14, Minimum Standards for Security Awareness Programs in the U.S. Intelligence Community. This draft was presented at the January 1979 SAWG meeting for future comments and discussion.

4. Also presented at the January 1979 SAWG meeting was the tasking from the Chairman, SECOM for the preparation of a Security Orientation for Senior Officials. A sub-working group was formed and will be drafting a program for the deadline of 30 March 1979.
